December 2008

Holiday Greetings

Regalia

The Indian Education Program is making regalia for our upcoming Coastal Gathering and Powwow, dates to follow. We have material, beads, looms, pieces of odds and ends leather. We will be having a class on December 1, 2008 from 5:30-7:30. Please join us, if you are working on regalia at home please bring it and come meet us! It will be a potluck.

Andrew Morrison, Apache/Haida
Painting on Paddles and Drums Class
A Cultural Perspective

The Edmonds Arts Festival Foundation, has awarded us a generous grant for a painting project. We will paint on dance paddles with Andrew Morrison leading the art instruction. The class will be limited to the first 20 students who are enrolled in the Indian Education Program. If your child is interested it is important that you email or telephone me and put his/her name on my list. This will be a great class for students to learn from the renowned Native artist Andrew Morrison who is also from our community. The class dates for this project are:

- ◆ December 8, 2008 @ 5:30-7:30
- ◆ December 9, 2008 @ 5:30-7:30

Please have a design from your tribe sketched on a piece of paper, if you need help with ideas please call me and I will help. To learn more about Andrew Morrison please visit his website at:

www.onestaa.com This is a fantastic website you will love his music as well!
This will be a potluck.

4th Annual Holiday Supper

We will have our 4th Annual Winter Supper, December 15, 2008 from 6:00-8:00 PM. Please join us for an evening of:

- ◆ Frybread Tacos and Vegetable soup (non-meat alternative!) and bannock bread
- ◆ Dessert, punch, and coffee
- ◆ Holiday arts and crafts, painting on Christmas bulbs and stringing popcorn
- ◆ Two Birdz drum group will be joining us to bring in the holiday cheer!

This is always a fun night to get together and visit and the painting has always been a favorite of the students to do. Please bring your favorite dessert to share with everyone! Please call me if you have any questions about the supper!
