

Seattle Teachers Autism Symposium

The University of Washington Autism Center and St. John's Masonic Lodge are excited to present the 2nd Annual Seattle Teachers Autism Symposium to educators interested in learning more about Autism Spectrum Disorders. This year, in order to meet the needs and requests of our participants, we are pleased to offer two symposiums.

Symposium Dates:

July 27 and 28, 2016

August 17 and 18, 2016

Sign up for one or both of the symposiums. See reverse for more details or visit our website.

SPACE IS LIMITED

Seattle Teachers Autism Symposium is

FREE

for educators in the greater Seattle area.

Clock hours available for an additional fee. Advance registration required.

Both symposiums will be located at the University of Washington – Kane Hall.

TO REGISTER, visit our website: www.seattleautism.org

UW AUTISM CENTER
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

St. John's Masonic Lodge
Seattle

July 27 and 28 Symposium

Strategies to Support Middle and High School Students with High Functioning Autism

Who should attend?

Educators working with middle or high school students with high functioning ASD.

Symposium focus:

Presenters will provide information and strategies for supporting students while accessing general education curriculum.

Featured Presenters:

Julie George, MEd, BCBA
Jonathan Judy, MEd
Jill Locke, PhD
Patricia Matestic, PhD
Gary Stobbe, MD

August 17 and 18 Symposium

Strategies to Support Elementary Aged Students with Autism

Who should attend?

Educators working with elementary-aged students with autism in a variety of settings including a general education classroom, special education classroom, school playground, etc.

Symposium focus:

Presenters will provide information and strategies related to elementary aged students being served in a variety of educational settings.

Featured Presenters:

Christopher "CJ" Jones, PhD, BCBA-D
Annette Estes, PhD
Jill Locke, PhD
Ashley Penney, MEd, BCBA
Robin Talley, MEd, BCBA

Questions? Please email us or visit our website.

Email: russ.seattleautism@gmail.com

Website: www.seattleautism.org

