MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING: IMPROV, COMBAT &
ACTING CAMP with Seattle Shakespeare Company

July 10–14, 2017
Ages 11–15

Students will dive into one of Shakespeare's most famous plays, reading scenes, honing their acting skills, and learning improv games. They will also practice stage combat to bring the duels of this comedy to life! The week will culminate in a showcase of scenes and stage fighting for family and friends.

INVESTIGATE, ADAPT, ACT! with Book-It Repertory Theatre

July 17–21, 2017
Ages 7–11

What if you could bring a book to life?! With Book-It, students will dig into the juicy parts of a story — characters, setting, sequences, point of view — then take it apart and put it together again as a script to act out on stage. After spending the week in teamwork with their peers exploring stories in a fun, physical way, this new acting ensemble will share its work in a final performance for family and friends.

ROCKIN' RHYTHMS MARIMBA CAMP with Youth Marimba Workshop

July 31–August 4, 2017
Ages 7–11

In this hands-on music camp, kids will learn to play melodies, harmonies and fun rhythms, as well as how to keep time on a variety of marimbas, hand percussion, and drums. Campers will learn by ear with a humorous, kid-centered approach and explore the elements of music through interactive movement and community-building drum circle games. The special connection between the Pacific Northwest and Zimbabwean marimba music will also be explored. No experience necessary, and all skill levels welcome!

RHYTHM GENERATION: Intergenerational Marimba
Camp with Youth Marimba Workshop

August 7–11, 2017
Teens (13–19) & Seniors

Join ECA's first intergenerational camp! Led by Youth Marimba Workshop in partnership with Silver Kite Community Arts, this camp will give seniors and teens the experience of a true community marimba band. Participants will learn to play melodies, harmonies, and rhythms, as well as keep time on a variety of marimbas, hand percussion, and drums. The camp is structured so that teens play together in a special morning session. Teens later take the lead to help teach their senior band-mates when the whole group meets — with the objective to provide leadership and mentor opportunities to both teens and seniors. No experience necessary, and all skill levels welcome! On the last day of camp, the full band will perform for friends and family.
