

Edmonds in Bloom

Edmonds in Bloom* offers a pre-Mom's Day event on Saturday, May 13th

Spring is here and Edmonds in Bloom hopes local families will plan to attend its first activity of the year. The ever-popular event, "Kids Plant for Mom's Day", will be held on Saturday, May 13th from 9 am to 2 pm at the Edmonds Farmer's Market on Bell St. East of 5th. It's a fun-filled day where children plant colorful annuals in bloom for their mothers for Mother's Day with the help of Edmonds in Bloom volunteers. This, of course, is the day before Mother's Day. Children of all ages really enjoy this event. The budding, young gardeners get to pick for Mom a colorful beach pail, adorn it with stickers and add a variety of flowered plants of their choice. The kids take great pride in their gift of a colorful living bouquet for Mom, that can last all summer, and have fun doing it! A $10 donation for materials is greatly appreciated.

Two other related events are also not to be missed that day: the Children's Fairy Flower Parade, starting from the Edmonds Library at 12:00 noon and the opportunity to make a free Mothers Day Card at C'est La Vie, 320 5th Ave South. Come join us- for Mom! For more information check: www.edmondsinbloom.com.
