

Standing Together for Snohomish County Youth: 2nd Annual Children & Youth Mental Wellness Fair

Saturday, May 6, 2017 • 10AM - 3PM
Evergreen Middle School • 7621 Beverly Lane, Everett

With Special Guests:
Recess Monkey & Houston Kraft

All
Families
Welcome!

In support of the Children's and Youth Mental Health Wellness Fair,
All Everett Transit will operate FARE FREE on Saturday, May 6, 2017.

FREE COMMUNITY FUN EVENT
DROP IN SESSIONS – NO REGISTRATION NEEDED

COMMUNITY RESOURCES AVAILABLE

9:45 am	DOORS OPEN – WELCOME!
10:00- 11:00 am	Recess Monkey A nationally acclaimed family music band from Seattle. Three elementary teachers who rock!
10:45- 11:30 am	Attachment and Bonding	Bullying	Signs, Symptoms, and Coping Strategies for Depression and Anxiety	Positive Youth Development
11:45- 12:30 pm	Managing Screen Time & Maximizing Children's Learning	Growing Up LGBTQ	What To Do If I Am Worried About Someone Else	Suicide Prevention
1:00- 2:00 pm	Houston Kraft Speaker-Trainer-Kindness Advocate Houston has worked with nearly 500 schools. He connects through comedy, storytelling and authenticity. He teaches hands-on tools that leave long lasting and sustainable change. He is passionate about helping people create lives with love and purpose.
2:15- 3:00 pm	Naloxone Training: How To Recognize An Opioid Overdose and What To Do	Signs and Symptoms of Kids' Using: How Do I Talk About It	Cutting and Self Harm	Healthy Relationships

- FREE Food 11AM-3PM
- Disney Movie: 11:30AM

- Jovon Miller Productions: Hip Hop & Musical Theatre 11AM-1PM

- Schack Art Center Teen Art Session

- Family Photos All Day

The Edmonds School District does not sponsor or endorse the activity and/or information contained in this material

Organized through community partnerships with Snohomish County Human Services

