

Washington State Independent Living Youth Conference

FREE Summer Workshop

Job preparation activities

College preparation activities

Get motivated

Make new friends

This conference is for young people with disabilities who are planning to go to college, get a job, and live independently in the community in the future. Room and board is provided and transportation will be coordinated. Youth with 504 plans are encouraged to apply.

 For ages 17-24. Parental permission required for students under age 18.*

For more information please visit:

<http://www.centerforindependence.org/announcements.html> or Call Leah Thomas at 253-582-1253, ext. 5. You may also contact your local Center for Independent Living (CIL): Spokane- Kathleen Kennedy-Wickham (509) 326-6355, Seattle- Matt Casasanta
(206) 545-7055, Bellevue- Kyla Smith (425) 558-0993, Bellingham-
Sherry Rials (360) 393-3890.

WHEN:
July 21st- 24th

WHERE:
Seattle University
901 12th Ave
Seattle, WA 98122

Individuals wanting to attend the workshop must call to request an application before June 1st.

"The Edmonds School District does not endorse or sponsor the activity and/or information contained in this material"