

Rainbow Gets Girls Ready for Life

RAINBOW is

- An international organization for girls between the ages of 11 and 20.
- A safe place to develop friendships and have fun.
- An opportunity to get involved in the community and provide service to others.
- A place to develop your leadership and public speaking skills and learn other skills that are essential in future success.
- A place to dress up, challenge personal limits and gain confidence.
- A place where girls can have the opportunity to travel and make new friends from around the world.
- A place to belong, grow, have fun, make friends and lasting memories.

RAINBOW'S PURPOSE

The purpose of the Rainbow Girls organization is to provide young women a safe place to learn important life skills and the value of service to others, gain self-confidence and have fun. Whatever a girl's dream may be for her future, Rainbow can help develop the skills and dedication necessary to achieve those dreams.

A NORTHWEST TRADITION

The Rainbow organization has been part of the Pacific Northwest community since 1922.

A POSITIVE ENVIRONMENT

Trained adult volunteers provide guidance to the members and help the girls succeed in their activities. Older girls serve as mentors to younger members, providing encouraging support and friendship.
