

A Talk Just For Parents

For Parents Looking to Have Great Conversations With Kids On Puberty, Sex, & Growing Up

Guest Speaker Julie Metzger, RN, MN

May 8 | 6:30–8:30 pm | $15 (includes childcare)

Edmonds United Methodist Church

Parents of kids of all ages are invited!

Julie Metzger, Co-Founder of Great Conversations, has been talking to families about puberty and sex for over 30 years; and has co-authored Will Puberty Last My Whole Life? for preteens and has also written a journal for girls - This is Me. Julie will address the what, when, why, who, and how for parents. Julie will address the developmental span of preschool aged children through high school. See her work at greatconversations.com.

Appetizers and Q&A cards available at 6:30. Presentation begins at 7.

Childcare rooms will be open for infants - preschoolers and another room for school-agers will be open.

Register now: $15 per person at edmondsumc.org/family

(Includes appetizers and childcare). Scholarships available. All income goes to support EUMC MOPS Group Childcare.

Call Edmonds UMC for more information at 425-778-2119.

The Edmonds School District does not sponsor or endorse the activity and/or information contained in this material.

Edmonds
United Methodist
Church