

7:00	Introduction—Great Hall
7:05	Keynote Speaker: Erica Johnson, Director of Admission, Lewis and Clark College
7:35 – 8:05	Breakout Session 1
8:07 – 8:37	Breakout Session 2
8:39 – 9:09	Breakout Session 3

- D101 How to be a Supportive Parent through the College Search—Jim Rawlins, University of Oregon
- D102 Financing a College Education—David Aramaki, Ameriprise Financial Services
- D104 [Parent Only] A Parent’s Guide to the College Essay and Personal Statement—Melore Nielsen, Seattle University
- D105 Technical College Opportunities—Meisha Wangerin, Lake Washington Institute of Technology
- D106 [Parent Only] A Moment with the Director: Questions You Really Want to Ask About the Admission Process—Erica Johnson, Lewis and Clark College
- D107 La universidad para estudiantes de la primera generación—sesión en español—Jaime Soto, University of Washington—Seattle
Pasos para iniciar a la universidad /colegio, Servicios de apoyo para el estudiante universitario ¿Cómo apoyar a estudiantes indocumentados?
- E101 Honors Colleges at Public Universities—Scott Linneman, Western Washington University
- E104 Opportunities at Washington Community Colleges—Mark DiVirgilio & Michelle Platt, Edmonds Community College
- E105 Translating Running Start to Four-Year Colleges—Muriel Montenegro, University of Washington—Bothell
- E106 College Success for Students with Learning Disabilities—Craig Kerr, Edmonds Community College
- F101 The ACT and SAT—Robyn Campbell and Annie Hayward, Collegeology
- F102 Applying to Out of State Public Institutions—Hayley Beckman, University of Idaho, Jarrod Larse, Oregon State University and Sydney Montgomery, Boise State University
- F104 Site Unseen: How to Learn More About a College When You Cannot Visit—Hunter Denson, University of Alabama
- F105 The Value of a Liberal Arts Education in Today’s World—Eric Pedersen, The Evergreen State College
- F106 Advising the Artistically Talented Student—Sharron Starling, Cornish College of the Arts
- F107 Canada: Great Opportunities for an International College Experience—Chris Payne, University of British Columbia
- E201 [Student Only] Writing an Effective College Admission Essay—Katie O’Brien, Seattle University
- E204 [Student Only] Myth or Reality—What questions do you have about the admissions process? - Andrea Frangi, The George Washington University
- E205 Making the Most of a College Visit—Paige Schoenborn, University of Oregon
- E206 Division III Athletics—Miles Burdick, University of Puget Sound
- E207 College Athletics and the NCAA—Megan Bonvillian, University of Washington—Seattle

LIBRARY

Applying to Public Universities in Washington State—Aubree Quinn Washington State University, Erin Waldschmidt, University of Washington—Seattle and Sidney Lin, Central Washington University

Many thanks to our guest speakers:

Keynote

Erica Johnson, Director of Admission,s Lewis & Clark College

How to be a Supportive Parent through the College Search

Jim Rawlins, Assistant Vice President of Enrollment Management University of Oregon

A Moment with the Director: Questions You Really Want to Ask About the Admissions Process

Erica Johnson, Director of Admission, Lewis & Clark College

A Parent's Guide to the College Essay and Personal Statement

Melore Nielsen, Dean of Admission, Seattle University

Myth or Reality—What questions do you have about the admission process?

Andrea Frangi, The George Washington University

Opportunities at Washington Community Colleges

Mark DiVirgilio and Michelle Platt, Edmonds Community College

The Value of a Liberal Arts Education in Today's World

Eric Pedersen, Director of Admission, The Evergreen State College

Canada: Great Opportunities for an International College Experience

Chris Payne, Manager, International Recruitment, University of British Columbia

Applying to Out of State Public Universities

*Hayley Beckman, Assistant Director, University of Idaho, Jarrod Larse, Regional Admissions Advisor, Oregon State University
Sydney Montgomery, Senior Regional Enrollment Counselor*

Advising the Artistically Talented Student

Sharron Starling, Director of Admissions, Cornish College of the Arts

College Athletics and the NCAA

Megan Coyne, Assistant Director of Compliance, University of Washington Athletics

Division III Athletics

Miles Burdick, Admission Counselor University of Puget Sound

La Universidad para estudiantes de la primera generación

Jamie Soto, Admissions Counselor, University of Washington—Seattle

Applying to Public Universities in Washington State

*Aubree Quinn Admission Counselor, Washington State University
Erin Waldschmidt, Admissions Counselor, University of Washington—Seattle
Sidney Lin, Admission Counselor, Central Washington University*

Making the Most of a College Visit

Paige Schoenborn, University of Oregon

Honors Colleges at Public Universities

Scott Linneman, Director, University Honors Program, Western Washington University

Site Unseen: How to Learn More About a College When You Cannot Visit

Hunter Denson, University of Alabama

The ACT and SAT

Robyn Campbell & Annie Hayward, Collegeology, Seattle

College Success for Students with Learning Disabilities

Craig Kerr, Services for Students with Disabilities, Edmonds Community College

Translating Running Start to Four-Year Colleges

Muriel Montenegro, Assistant Director of Admissions, University of Washington—Bothell

Writing an Effective College Admission Essay

Katie O'Brien, Senior Admissions Counselor, Seattle University

Financing a College Education

David Aramaki, Financial Advisor, Ameriprise Financial

Technical College Opportunities

Meisha Wangerin Coordinator– Outreach & Recruitment, Lake Washington Institute of Technology